5 moons

Chapter 1 by Oggie

Isaac woke up. It was late at night. His alarm clock flashed 2:15 am. The moon was full. His stomach fluttered. It was one of those nights. He jumped out of bed. He slipped on his sneakers and went outside. His uncle wouldn't notice. He never did. He ran down the block and made a right toward the forest. When he got there 4 other people were there waiting. "You're late." said a feminine voice. "Sorry, you know I'm a heavy sleeper." Isaac said. "Can't blame you," said a voice. "He really woke us up early today." They all looked at the moon. "What is it?" said Isaac. A voice in his head spoke: "You're all in grave danger. Someone is coming for you all."

me. A power. You will find out soon enough." One girl collapsed. Isaac's vision blurred. "Wait! What is all this. How is this happening? How..." The other girl dropped. The voice said "You will find your way home." The two other boys dropped and Isaac fell. The pine needles poked his skin. He was closing his eyes. He woke up the next morning. "It was just a... He found a pine needle in his bed. "Huh." Isaac said.
